DO NOT CALL POLICY

Parliament Marketing respects the wishes of those customers and prospective customers who do not want to receive telemarketing calls. It is the policy of Parliament Marketing not to make a telemarketing call to:

- i) any person who has requested that Parliament Marketing not make such calls to the person's phone number.
- ii) any person who has put his or her telephone number on a national or state Do Not Call registry, except as otherwise permitted by law.

Parliament Marketing maintains a list containing the telephone numbers and names of those persons who have told Parliament Marketing that they do not want to receive telemarketing calls. Anyone may be placed on Parliament Marketing's Do Not Call list by phone or by sending a written request. Once a request has been made, the telephone number and name will be added to Parliament Marketing's Do Not Call list within a reasonable amount of time, not to exceed 30 days (or any shorter period required by applicable law). Parliament Marketing will maintain the telephone number and name (if provided) on our Do Not Call list for five (5) years, unless a request is made by the person to have the number removed. If a person's telephone number changes, another request must be submitted to have the new number added to the Do Not Call list.

Parliament Marketing intends to comply with all federal and state Do Not Call laws. All employees that engage in outbound telephone solicitation are trained in this policy and are made aware of these procedures before they are allowed to place calls to consumers. Management reviews the policy with these employees on a regular basis. The methods and procedures in this "Do Not Call" policy are reviewed by Parliament Marketing on a regular basis. If a consumer requests a copy of our Do Not Call policy, we will send a copy via U.S. mail or electronic mail.
